—The sharp gust of wind about 7:30 last night created a havoc among the children's stands on Military and Alamo plazas.

—The tables, chairs, and all were blown off, and many of the dishes broken, besides the scattering of the fire.

—If you are about to leave the city and wish to sell out by all means send J. M. Emerson right away. People who arrive in San Antonio intend to furnish a house should be at Martin & Co., 11-19-17.

—J. M. Emerson, on Soledad street, before purchasing.

STANLEY'S RECOMMENDATIONS.

Fort Duncan Should Be Re-Established To Protect the Soldiers' Interests.

The following is the report of General D. B. Stanley, in which several well known in army matters are recommended, will be of interest: To the Adjutant-General, Division of the Missouri, Sir: I have the honor to report, for the information of the Commander of the Division of the Missouri, the conditions and wants of this Department. During the past year its affairs have been uneventful; Indian raids, the record of which, so far as years ago, formed a gloomy picture of departmental affairs, have been Mexican outrages, when lifted to the bottom, have generally turned out to be neighborhood feuds, in which the aggressor was as likely to be the victim as the victim.

—Every first-class dealer sells Opera Pathé sign-tires. Avoid injurious imitations.

—Every description of bank and job printing done at the Light office. If

A Captain's residence is necessary. Captain Solomon, Schooner Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and New York, had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his throat. His cough was entirely cured. He is now a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household on board the schooner. Free Trial Bottles of this Standard Remedy at A. Drake's Drug Store.
